A DESPERATE NEGRO SHOOTS

Sunday morning about 2 o'clock a colored man named William Brooks, who lives some distance in the county, started for his home. He had with him a new suit of clothes, a hat, a pair of shoes and some other things, and about 48 in money. When about a mile from town he met another colored man, whom he asked if he knew where he could get a place to stay for the night, as he did not care to go along the road much at night.
